

Sharon Hall, principal of River Deep Coaching International Career & Life Coach

I'm Sharon, a certified professional coach with 16 years of experience coaching clients in blue-chip, multinational organisations around the world, as well as new start-ups, small businesses and healthcare providers.

I am known for my natural empathy and ability to build strong relationships quickly.

I use a variety of tools and techniques to challenge you to see possibilities that you could not previously imagine.

Clients are constantly surprised by what they learn about themselves and find that they are soon able to take the next step on a more focused, clearer path. If you'd like to find out what it would be like to work with me, please sign up the special You: Part Two package that Campbell, Jane and I have developed to help you develop your 'Part Two' plan. I am based in the UK, but my clients live all over the world.

I look forward to hearing from you!
